NEWS

Last Sunday we said goodbye to Daisy, Jonathan and Camila Miers as they got ready to fly out to Colombia on Wednesday night, along with Daisy's mum Nohora. They are spending a couple of days in Hawaii and Los Angeles on the way, and then will be in Colombia visiting Daisy's family for the next five weeks. They would appreciate our prayers as they travel; especially praying for the health of Daisy and their new baby as it grows and develops during the remainder of the pregnancy.

It is Luke Peters last Sunday with us as he travels to the South Island for work. We are very thankful for his effort in making our church building look so nice. All the best in your travels Luke, and we hope to see you again soon.

Thank you for those who have filled in prayer requests. Please know that the Leadership group are praying for those concerns and have shared some here so the church family can also pray:

- Jim & Aileen Smith as they struggle with health issues
- Marjorie Kunaka as she works in Australia and is missing home and family
- The Buick family as David has had a major stroke and the prognosis is not good.

Our new café kitchen was operational on Mothers Day Sunday, and we are enjoying such a great functional space to make the morning tea each Sunday. Thanks again to Mark Cooney, Peter Moss and Luke Peters for all your hard work creating this room.

YOUTH

On Saturday 13 May a group of 20 youth plus leaders bundled into a couple of vans and cars and headed out to Capernwray's annual "Breakthrough" – which is an event they hold for youth groups around the Waikato. It was a freezing cold, foggy night which added to the adventure the kids had as they roamed around the grounds completing challenges and avoiding traps while trying to become 'soul survivors'. The Capernwray students were all dressed up in amazing costumes – and the 'wolves' in the forest managed to scare lots of the kids judging from the screams coming from there. To finish the evening, the Capernwray students put on a drama, and then a staff member shared a devotional. The youth had heaps of fun during the event and were encouraged to remember the importance of using the tools God gives us to avoid the arrows of the evil one.
